INTROIT Morning Has Broken No. 469 Vs. 1

OPENING PRAYER & MOMENT FOR MEDITATION (Acts 4:32-35)
“Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.”

CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsively) (Psalm 133)

Pastor: How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!

All: It is like the precious oil on the head, running down upon the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down over the collar of his robes.

Pastor: It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion.

All: For there the Lord ordained his blessing, life forevermore.

HYMN Christ Is Alive! No. 108

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

Lord God, you have formed us together into a community of faith, as followers of Christ. Yet we so often stray in our own lives to seek personal gain. In so many ways, we have forgotten how to share with one another and only care for another when it is convenient. Our selfish and egotistical actions harm the ability of our community to function. Forgive us Lord, and teach us how to be a true community so that together, we may serve you to the fullest of our potential. We pray this in Jesus’ name. Silent prayer followed by ‘Amen’.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS (Unison)

Christ brought together the twelve disciples into a community. From there, the Christian community formed and spread. Today we are part of that original family that belongs to Christ. Thus, we are always forgiven when we stray. Through Christ we have the direction of where to turn when we have strayed, and through our corporate loving actions, we can serve Christ together in all that we do. Praise be Jesus’ name. Amen.

Help us use it all in its entirety. With great thanks, we rededicate our life to you. Use us as you might so that we may be yours. We pray this in Jesus’ name. Amen.

*When it was evening on that day,
the first day of the week,
and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood among them and said,
“Peace be with you.”
After he said this,
he showed them his hands and his side.
Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.
Jesus said to them again,
“Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”
When he had said this,
he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.
If you forgive the sins of any,
they are forgiven them;
if you retain the sins of any,
they are retained.”
But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve,
was not with them when Jesus came.
So the other disciples told him,
“We have seen the Lord.”
But he said to them,
“Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands,
and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side,
I will not believe.”
A week later his disciples were again in the house,
and Thomas was with them.
Although the doors were shut,
Jesus came and stood among them and said,
“Peace be with you.”
Then he said to Thomas,
“Put your finger here and see my hands.
Reach out your hand and put it in my side.
Do not doubt but believe.”
Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!”
Jesus said to him,
“Have you believed because you have seen me?
Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.”
Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.
But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah,
the Son of God,
and that through believing you may have life in his name.
