The First Presbyterian Church of Morrison, Illinois

*Reaching out to our neighbor with open hearts;
sharing God's blessings with others.*

All Are Welcome!

June/July 2024 • Vol. 67/No. 6

The Church is what the followers of Jesus became alongside Jesus. They walked with him. They prayed with him. They ate with him. They healed with him. They preached with him. They suffered with him. Jesus was crucified while they watched from a distance. At 3PM, the Temple curtain tore open. In Jewish theology, God dwelt behind the curtain. The new theology of the Church believed God was released from this dwelling place and entered into the world to dwell among humanity. Three days later, Jesus rose from the grave, gaining the name Christ, Savior, Messiah. Forty days later, the Church watched as Jesus was lifted out of sight in his Ascension. Ten days later, on the day of the celebration of Pentecost, in the capital of Jerusalem, in which the people celebrated wheat harvest, fifty days after Passover, the Holy Spirit entered into the world for all.

Left behind, the Church looked into their hands, and found the Keys to the Kingdom which Jesus had handed to them, with which Jesus instructed them to grow together, into a new world that was filled with Healing Love. The Church gathered people seeking love. The Church opened them to the Great Spirit. The Church taught them about the Word. The Church began to proclaim a Creator—a Creator of all who loved all and called for all to be one together, in this Great Spirit, which was poured out upon our world for all to receive. Yet only those who seek love can redeem this gift for the glory it gives.

This is the True Church. They follow the Way, the Truth, and the Life. They seek to love one another. They seek forgiveness when they fall short of love. They seek to love again. And they seek to let go, in love, when they cannot unite with another. War and fighting, they knew, was never an option. It led in the opposite direction. Instead, in love, they cared for one another. They gave up all their possessions to care for all whom they could. They were willing to sacrifice anything in their gratitude for the spiritual gift in the taking of Jesus' life. As Jesus laid down his own life, the Church seeks to lay down their own life to keep them from falling into the pit of the world. In the world there are empty gifts of lonesome pleasures. In Christ there is love, and everything which stems from love. In love is everything. The world amounts to nothing. Every member of the Church shall one day lay to rest. All shall return to the dust. Each of us was formed of the dust, and given life when God breathed our soul into us. Only the breath of God which we received in our creation continues beyond this world. For the exhaled Breath of God must eventually be inhaled. And there, back in God, our earthly cycle is complete. A new journey begins.

The Church, in such, seeks to embrace the most beauty of this lifetime as it can. Beauty is found in the Creator's natural realm. It is in this very spring and upcoming summer. It is the moment that we are always in. Time passes. However, we are right here, right now. Always. And where exactly is that? In love. That's a valid option open to us. We have been gifted it in Jesus' teaching. We have been gifted it in the very divine present of our own presence in this world, in this life, and with all in which we encounter. We have been gifted the Spirit of the Risen Lord, falling afresh upon all of us who seek Love, who seek to be the Church. Together, in love, we today carry the torch of the Church. The Keys of the Kingdom have been handed down through two thousand years of generations of believers. Today, the Keys are in our hands.

The First Presbyterian Church of Morrison, IL seeks to be part of the Church. We seek to follow Christ. We seek to receive and utilize the Holy Spirit. We seek to live into the Creation that God provides for us. We seek to love one another. We are always learning. We are always growing. We feed. We teach. We play. Yet to what extent? Do we limit our love? No. We seek to love all whom we encounter. We seek to offer hospitality to those willing to receive it. In a world that is full of hate and darkness, in a world full of division and labeling, in a world filled with sorrow, we seek to be a light. We seek to shine. We seek to let everyone know that they are loved by God, no matter what. We seek to let everyone know they can have a relationship with God, no matter what. We seek to let everyone know that God will always care for them and always be present for them, and God will receive them home when they take this final breath on earth.

God's love is for God to give. We don't get to pick and choose how God loves. But we can't imagine a God who is not always loving, no matter what. We were created by

Newsletter Deadline 07/22

Please get information to be included in the August Life Together newsletter to the office voicemail or e-mail by July 22.

Pastor Mike's 18th Anniversary

On August 1st, Pastor Mike will celebrate his 18th anniversary with us! On December 1st, he will officially break the record of longest pastorate of our congregation. Look forward to a party hosted by Pastor Mike on Sunday, December 1st, which will also be our decorate-the-church and Hanging of the Greens worship service.

Permanent Produce Shelter

Final construction of our produce table shelter will begin in early June. We will be adding tables and slotted walls around three sides. Once completed, we will place landscaping around the shelter and put up a permanent sign in the yard. Thanks to all the volunteers who have helped make this happen.

Presbyterian Women Project

PW, which includes all women of our church, is undertaking a new project. Resthave is in need of walker caddy bags. These are cloth bags which attach to the walker and are used for the resident to carry things with while using the walker. I have been assured that they are simple to make and use a minimum of material. You can find a pattern on Pinterest by searching "walker caddy pattern" or contact Deb Zigler.

Communion Dates for 2024

We have a new phone company at the church which is saving us a lot of money. When you call the church office, it will go straight to a message. Press 1 to be directed to the office phone. Press 2 to leave a message for Pastor Mike, which will be sent to him via an email. This will also help cut down on the amount of unwanted promotional calls.

BUILDING LOVE

What's our old building up to? In May, we shut off the boiler for the summer and had hopefully have all of the issues fixed for fall.

A gazebo was assembled in the NW corner of the property, completing step 2 of the permanent produce table. Final work begins in early June.

Carpet House has placed new carpeting in the ping-pong table room that was destroyed when a boiler pipe cracked in January. Over the summer we will rebuild the rest of the room.

The Lincolnway sidewalk was cleaned, a deep and wide divot near the back parking lot was filled (with the dirt and rock off the sidewalk), the dumpster put back in place (it inched up to the sidewalk over the winter), and the wood landscaping tiles were placed back along the area of the pea gravel. Unfortunately, we need to plan on the corner of Lincolnway and Genesee to stay the way it currently is for the unforeseen future.

Small chunks of brick have been falling off the bell tower. We hope we can have Deerview construction perform the tasks we contracted them for this past winter. They will be waterproofing brick on the belltower and other spots on the church walls, as they are letting water seep through when drenched with water; caulking areas that need caulked in both the brick and windows from the outside; and other needed work on outdoor windows.

We will be placing a new air conditioning unit in Pastor Mike's office. Unfortunately, the central air we had piped into the offices a few years ago does not sufficiently cool off the offices. It does, however, keep the offices from becoming blazing hot, as was the norm.

God. We did not create God, though we try by limiting God with our theology and our societal norms. We divide ourselves. But God does not divide us. God offers us all life and love. God tells us to follow the love, and have a full life—build a beloved community, care for one another, live in heaven on earth. But humans do not all choose love, and in such, choose a life limited in potential. Humans easily create a painful world around us, instead of creating heaven. Indeed, we divide ourselves from one another. But love can stop that. Love can heal that. Love can bind us. As Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life, we will find that when we seek love in fullness, we live following the Way, we live into the Truth, and we live our life alongside the true Life. This is the path for the Church to follow. Any other way is not the Way. It is untrue. It leads to death.

In our life together, we can be the true Church, just like the one which walked alongside Jesus and received the Keys. Were those people perfect? No! Did they doubt, misunderstand, scratch their heads a lot, misdirect, have a hard time forgiving, and sometimes just downright mess up? Of course they did. They were humans, just as we are. But they possessed what we too possess—we all have a life gifted to us, we all have a community to be part of, we all have the gift of love and the power of the Holy Spirit. God gives us what we need. It's up to us to love one another so we can continue being the Church and spread the healing and empowering love of the Triune God throughout the world. We can do this. Our small church in Morrison, IL is striving to do this. Walk with us as we follow Christ. Let's see where this love takes us!

Grace and Peace,
Mike
